Celebrate Black History Month at the Library

Come join the Santa Maria Public Library for interactive storytelling, shadow puppetry, and creativity while celebrating and learning about the history of the African American tradition. Celebrate Black History Month will be held in the Altrusa Theater on Tuesday, February 18 at 6:30 p.m. This program is best suited for children ages six through 12.

Youth Services requires a free ticket for admittance to special programs. Tickets are currently available at the Youth Services desk or may be reserved by phone to be picked up later that day. A maximum of six (6) tickets may be reserved however; reservations may only be made once. This program is graciously sponsored by the Friends of the Santa Maria Public Library.

Parents, please remember that only those children, parents, and other family members who have a ticket are able to attend these special events.

The Library's hours are 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays, and 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays. The Library is closed on Sundays.

Questions may be directed to Youth Services, Santa Maria Public Library, 925-0994.
