Presentation on Prescription Medication Assistance

Are you dealing with a chronic medical condition, and struggling to afford your prescription medication? Have you even considered skipping your medication, because you just can't afford it?

The public is invited to Shepard Hall at the Santa Maria Public Library for an information session from the Alliance for Pharmaceutical Access on Thursday, April 10, 2014 from 3:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. A representative of the Alliance will be present to explain their services. They are a local non-profit organization that helps low-income people with chronic conditions obtain brand-name medication free of charge, by accessing Patient Assistant Programs offered by pharmaceutical companies.

Please note that the representative will not be able to process applications at the presentation. For information on how to apply, call (805) 614-2040, or visit the organization's website:
