Concerts in the Park Series to Feature Unfinished Business on July 6

The City of Santa Maria Recreation and Parks Department invites the entire community to the next Concerts in the Park event on Sunday, July 6 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at Rotary Centennial Park, 2625 South College Drive. Catch a free, live performance from Unfinished Business as they play your favorite rock 'n' roll hits from the 60s.

Unfinished Business started with band members David Hollister on drums, Jim Witt on bass and vocals, Ben Davis on rhythm guitar and vocals, and Ed Miller on lead guitar and vocals. They all performed in different California bands during the 60s, however, they didn't know one another back then. Careers and growing families slowly pulled the musicians away from performing, but their passion for music never wavered. Their zest for playing brought them together in 2003, and they later completed their ensemble with the addition of Thomas "Toes" Cuff on keys and percussion. Unfinished Business performs throughout the Central Coast and brings back the soundtrack of an era where peace, love, and rock 'n' roll ruled.

The Concerts in the Park Series continues with free, live performances from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. with these other amazing bands:
