Recreation and Parks Call to Bands for the 2013 Concert Series

The City of Santa Maria Recreation and Parks Department is putting out a call to bands who are interested in performing during the department's upcoming 2013 Summer Concert in the Park series.

The Recreation and Parks Department is looking for up to 12 family-friendly bands from a variety of genres, who are interested in performing on one Sunday from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. during the July-August-September span, at one of the City's local parks or at one Saturday evening performance.

Interested bands are invited learn more about the concert series and to fill out an application available on the City's website at www.ci.santa-maria.ca.us or on the P.L.A.Y., Inc. website at www.santamariaatplay.org.

In 2004, the Recreation and Parks Department held its first series of Concerts in the Park hosting three concerts that first year. Over the past 10 years, this event has grown to 10 Sunday afternoon performances and two Saturday evening "Block Party" performances.

Questions may be directed to the Recreation and Parks Department, 925-0951 ext. 260.
