Choose Your Own Adventure!

Kids do not just watch the show - they are part of the show! Storyteller Victoria Goring brings a unique blend of storytelling and improvised theater to the Santa Maria Public Library on Wednesday, June 19th at 6:30 p.m. in the Altrusa Theater. Stories will be created live from children's suggestions and is sure to be an imaginative journey with positive messages and guaranteed surprises. This special program is open to children ages five and up with their parents or guardians.

Youth Services requires a free ticket for admittance to their special programs. Free tickets are currently available at the Children's Desk or may be reserved by phone to be picked up later that day. A maximum of six (6) tickets may be reserved, but reservations can only be made once. This program is graciously sponsored by the Friends of the Library

Parents please remember that only those children, parents, and other family members who have a ticket are able to attend our special events. Library staff apologizes, but cannot accommodate infants and must adhere to the age limit as requested by performers.

The Library's hours are 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays, and 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays. The Library is closed on Sundays.

Questions may be directed to Youth Services, Santa Maria Public Library, 925-0994.
