Movie Night at the Library on October 8

The Santa Maria Public Library is pleased to offer the movie To Hell and Back, which is not rated. The film will be screened at 5:00 p.m. with a discussion afterward on Wednesday, October 8, 2014, in Shepard Hall.

As part of the California Reads program, the library is screening this true World War II story of Audie Murphy, the most decorated soldier in United States history. Based on his autobiography, Mr. Murphy also stars as himself.

“California Reads is a program of Cal Humanities in partnership with the California Center for the Book. It is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian.”

“Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of Cal Humanities or the National Endowment for the Humanities.”

Seating is limited and is offered on a first come, first served basis.

The Santa Maria Public Library is open Monday through Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., and Friday through Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The library is closed on Sunday.
