PCPA Presents Tomás and the Library Lady at Santa Maria Public Library

Please join us in the Santa Maria Public Library's Altrusa Theater on Tuesday the 28th of October at 4:00 p.m. for a special production of Tomás and the Library Lady presented by the PCPA—Pacific Conservatory Theatre's Educational Outreach Program.

This play, based on the book by Pat Mora, follows the story of a young migrant boy who is afraid to attend school due to a language barrier, and finds refuge in his local Carnegie Library. Don't miss a chance to see this inspiring story brought to life through the magic of theater.

This program is open to children ages 5 and up. Youth Services requires a free ticket for admittance to their special programs. Tickets are available at the Youth Services desk or may be reserved by phone to be picked up later that day. A maximum of six (6) tickets may be reserved however; reservations may only be made once.

Parents please remember that only those children, parents, and other family members who have a ticket are able to attend our special events.

"Tomás and the Library Lady," by Pat Mora. Adapted for the stage by José Cruz Gonzáles. Produced by permission of Curtis Brown, Ltd. Copyright 1997—All Rights Reserved. This program is funded by Freeport-McMoran Oil and Gas.

The Library's hours are 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays, and 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays. The Library is closed on Sundays.

Questions may be directed to Youth Services, Santa Maria Public Library, 925-0994.
